DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by JP (1-178596).

JP '596 disclose a cleaning composition comprising alkyloyl alkyl taurates of formula I; polyethylene glycol; nonionic surfactants of formula II and polyoxyalkyl ether; additional surfactants; and citric acid or lactic acid. (abstract). Note, see example 5.

As this reference teaches all of the instantly required it is considered anticipatory.

3. Claims 1-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by JP (58-101197).

JP '197 discloses detergent composition comprising taurine type surfactants of formula III; citric acid; polyethylene glycols; additional surfactants and polyoxyethylene alkyl ethers (abstract). Note, see example 6.

As this reference teaches all of the instantly required it is considered anticipatory.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 1751

5. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148

USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

6. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

7. Claims 1, 3-5, 7-12, 15-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Miyahara et al (2001/0021691).

Miyahara et al disclose a cleansing agent comprising surfactants such as acylmethyl taurine (0018); nonionic surfactants (0019); humectants such as polyethylene glycol (0029); and organic acids such as citric or malic (0035). Note, see table 4.

Art Unit: 1751

Miyahara et al do not teach with sufficient specificity each of the claimed components. However, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to combine the components to specifically teach the claimed invention because Miyahara et al teach all ingredients as conventional ingredients for the purpose of forming a cleansing cream.
